

Partner Randy Markey receives sales award

February 8th, 2007

Partner Randy Markey is a recipient of the 2007 Distinguished Marketing and Sales Award (DMSA) by SME Cleveland, Sales and Marketing Executives Cleveland.

The DMSA is the profession's premier honor to acknowledge excellence and provide community recognition for outstanding sales and marketing achievements. Selection criteria are based on the demonstration of the highest business, professional and ethical standards, including:

- Outstanding sales and marketing achievements
- Extraordinary consumer or customer development
- Successful leadership in sales and marketing management
- Superior planning and organizational skills
- Strong community and professional involvement

All the recipients are being honored at an Awards Banquet benefits the SME Education Foundation Scholarship Fund in February at the Intercontinental Hotel Cleveland. More information about SME Cleveland can be found at www.smeleveland.com

Randy Markey is co-founder and principal of Capital Acceleration Partners, an interim management and advisory services firm in Cleveland, OH.

Congratulations to Randy on this achievement.

Partner Zone

Partner Update

Notify Me of New Grant Guidelines

Invite Me to Events

Getting to Cleveland SVP

Contact Us